(r) identify and seek participation in bilateral and multilateral technical cooperation programmes designed to develop disaster management capabilities;

(s) identify and maintain in a state of readiness and make available immediately on request by the Executive Director relevant material and human resources in the event of disaster.

ARTICLE XXI DISCIPLINED FORCES

1. Where, in response to a request for assistance by any affected Participating State, members of the disciplined forces of another Participating State are despatched to any part of the territory of the requesting State, the Executive Director shall, subject to the express prior agreement of the competent authorities of the requesting State, designate a Special Coordinator from among the senior officers of such forces, acting after consultation with the Chiefs of Staff or Commanding Officers of the disciplined forces concerned.

2. The Special Coordinator shall be charged with responsibility for coordinating the disaster relief efforts of the disciplined forces in the affected Participating State.

3. No member of the disciplined forces of a Participating State shall be despatched to the territory of an affected Participating State without the express prior consent of that State.

4. In the absence of a contrary agreement between the requesting State and the sending State to that effect, members of the disciplined forces of the sending State shall be under the control and disciplinary authority of their commanding officer.

ARTICLE XXII DIRECTION AND CONTROL OF ASSISTANCE

1. Subject to paragraph 2, the overall direction, control, coordination and supervision of assistance despatched to a requesting State shall be the responsibility within its territory of the requesting State.

2. Where the assistance from a sending State involves personnel other than disciplined forces, the sending State shall designate in consultation with the requesting State the person who should be in charge of, retain immediate operational supervision over the personnel, equipment and supplies... provided by it. The person so designated shall exercise such supervision in cooperation with the competent authorities of the requesting State.

3. The requesting State shall provide to the extent of its capabilities local facilities and services for proper and efficient administration of communications assistance. In particular, the requesting State shall ensure that any ground situations brought into its territory for the purpose of rendering assistance shall be duly licensed to transmit and receive information in accordance with its domestic laws and regulations.

4. In the absence of a contrary agreement, ownership of equipment and materials despatched to a requesting State by a sending State during periods of assistance shall be unaffected and their prompt return shall be facilitated at the request of the sending State.

5. The requesting State shall ensure the protection of personnel, equipment and materials brought into its territory for the purpose of rendering assistance during times of disaster.

ARTICLE XXIII
COMPETENT AUTHORITIES AND CONTACT POINTS
1. In the absence of a contrary indication from a Participating State the competent authority and contact point authorised to make requests for and accept offers of assistance in the event of a disaster shall be the head of the National Disaster Management Agency.

2. The Coordinating Unit shall be immediately informed of any change of the contact and focal points of Participating States.

3. The Coordinating Unit shall expeditiously inform Participating States and relevant international organizations with the information referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

ARTICLE XXIV
CONFIDENTIALITY AND PUBLIC STATEMENTS
1. Participating States, their officials and the staff of CDEMA shall respect and not disclose any confidential information received by them in connection with assistance requested in the event of a disaster and the information shall be used exclusively for its intended purpose.

2. The sending State shall use its best endeavours to coordinate with the requesting State before releasing information to the public on the assistance provided in connection with a disaster.

ARTICLE XXV
COSTS OF PROVIDING ASSISTANCE
Except as may otherwise be agreed between them, the expenses incurred by a sending State in providing assistance to a requesting State shall be defrayed by the sending State.

ARTICLE XXVI
TERMINATION OF ASSISTANCE
1. The Executive Director shall, subject to paragraph 2, after consultation with the requesting State, determine the period of response to a disaster.

2. The requesting or sending State may, at any time, after appropriate consultation and by notification in writing terminate the receipt or provision of assistance received or provided under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXVII
PRIVILEGES, IMMUNITIES AND FACILITIES TO BE ACCORDED A SENDING STATE AND ITS PERSONNEL
1. The requesting State shall accord to personnel of the sending State and personnel acting on its behalf the necessary privileges, immunities and facilities for the performance of their functions in rendering assistance.
2. Subject to prior notification by the sending State and acceptance by the requesting State of the personnel of the sending State or personnel acting on its behalf, the requesting State shall:

   (a) grant to such personnel immunity from arrest and detention;

   (b) grant to such personnel immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and in respect of all acts and omissions in rendering assistance and the immunity shall continue notwithstanding that the period of assistance has been terminated;

   (c) grant to such personnel exemption from taxes, duties or other charges, in respect of the performance of their functions in rendering assistance, as is accorded to diplomatic personnel in accordance with international law;

   (d) facilitate the entry into, stay in and departure from its territory of personnel so notified and accepted.

3. The requesting State shall-

   (a) accord the sending State exemption from taxes, duties or other charges on equipment and property brought into the territory of the requesting State for the purpose of rendering assistance;

   (b) confer immunity from seizure, attachment or requisition of such equipment and property and ensure their return to the sending State; and

   (c) as far as possible, facilitate access to medical care of sick or injured personnel deployed during the period of assistance.

5. Persons enjoying privileges and immunities under this Article shall respect the law and regulations of the requesting State and shall not interfere in its domestic affairs.

ARTICLE XXVIII

TRANSIT OF PERSONNEL, EQUIPMENT AND PROPERTY

Participating States shall, at the request of the requesting State or the sending State, take all measures necessary to facilitate the transit through their territory of duly notified personnel, equipment and property involved in rendering assistance to or from a requesting State.

ARTICLE XXIX

CLAIMS AND COMPENSATION

1. Participating States shall cooperate in order to facilitate the determination of legal proceedings and the settlement of claims under this Article.

2. In the absence of an agreement, the requesting State shall, in respect of death or injury to persons or damage to or loss of property or damage to the environment caused within its territory or under its control or jurisdiction by personnel of the requested State in the course of providing the assistance -

   (a) not bring any legal proceedings against the sending State or persons or other legal entities acting on its behalf;

   (b) assume responsibility for dealing with legal proceedings and claims brought by third parties against the sending State or against persons or other legal entities acting on its behalf except in cases of wilful misconduct or gross negligence;

   (c) hold the sending State or persons or other legal entities acting on its behalf harmless in respect of legal proceedings referred to in sub-paragraph (b);

   (d) compensate the sending State or persons or other legal entities acting on its behalf for death or injury to personnel of the sending State or persons or other legal entities acting on its behalf; and

   (e) for loss of or damage to non-consumable equipment or materials brought to the requesting State for the purpose of rendering assistance except in case of wilful misconduct or gross negligence by personnel of the sending State.

3. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to prevent compensation or indemnity available under any applicable international agreement or national law of a Participating State nor to require the requesting State to apply paragraph 2 of this Article, in whole or in part, to its nationals or permanent residents.

ARTICLE XXX
PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES OF CDEMA
1. CDEMA, its property and assets wherever located and by whomsoever held shall enjoy immunity from every form of legal process except in so far as in any particular case the Executive Director has expressly waived its immunity. Any waiver of immunity shall not extend to any measure of execution.

2. Save as provided in paragraph 1 the property of CDEMA wherever located and by whomsoever held shall be immune from search, acquisition, confiscation, expropriation and any other form of interference, whether by executive, administrative or judicial action.

3. This Article shall not be construed as preventing the Government of a Participating State from taking appropriate action in connection with the investigation of accidents involving motor vehicles belonging to or operated on behalf of CDEMA.

ARTICLE XXXI
ARCHIVES OF CDEMA
1. The archives of CDEMA shall be inviolable wherever located.

2. Proprietary data, confidential information and personnel records shall not be placed in archives open to public inspection.

ARTICLE XXXII
FACILITIES IN RESPECT OF COMMUNICATIONS
1. CDEMA shall enjoy in Participating States freedom of communication for its official communications.

2. The official correspondence and all other forms of official communications shall be inviolable.

3. CDEMA shall have the right to use codes and to dispatch and receive correspondence by courier in sealed bags, which shall not be searched or detained unless the competent authorities have reasonable grounds to believe that the sealed bags do not only contain articles, correspondence or documents for the exclusive official use of CDEMA, in which case the bag shall be opened only in the presence of an officer of CDEMA.

4. This Article shall not preclude the adoption of appropriate security measures in the interest of a participating State or its Government.

ARTICLE XXXIII
REPRESENTATIVES AND STAFF OF CDEMA
Representatives of Participating States attending meetings of the Council, the MCC or the TAC as well as the Executive Director and other staff of CDEMA shall enjoy in the territory of each Participating State -

(a) immunity from legal process with respect to acts performed by them in the exercise of their functions, except to the extent that the State which they represent or CDEMA as appropriate expressly waives this immunity in any particular case;

(b) where they are not nationals of that Participating State, the same exemptions from immigration restrictions, alien registration requirements and national service obligations, the same facilities as regards exchange restrictions and the same treatment in respect of traveling facilities as are accorded by that Participating State to the representatives, officials and employees of comparable rank of other Participating States.

ARTICLE XXXIV
EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXES AND CUSTOMS DUTIES
1. CDEMA, its assets and property, income, operations and transactions shall be exempt from all direct taxation and goods imported or exported for its official use shall be exempt from all customs duties. CDEMA shall not claim exemption from taxes which are no more than charges for services rendered.

2. Where purchases of goods or services of substantial value necessary for the official activities of CDEMA are made by or on behalf of CDEMA, and where the price of the goods or services includes taxes or duties, appropriate measures shall, to the extent practicable, be taken by Participating States to grant exemptions from such taxes or duties or provide for their reimbursement.

3. Goods imported or purchased under an exemption provided for in this Article shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of in the territory of the Participating State granting the exemptions, except under conditions agreed with that Participating Member State.

4. No tax shall be levied by Participating States in respect of salaries, other types of emoluments or any other form of payment made by CDEMA to the Executive Director and staff of CDEMA as well as experts performing missions for CDEMA.

5. Paragraph 4 does not apply where the Executive Director or the staff member of CDEMA is a national of the Participating State where CDEMA is located.

ARTICLE XXXV
SUSPENSION OF RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERSHIP
1. A Participating State which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contribution to the administrative budget of CDEMA shall have no vote in the Council or the MCC if the amount of the arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two financial years.

2. A Participating State which has violated the obligations assumed under this Agreement may be suspended from the exercise of the rights and privileges of membership by the Council.

3. A determination within the meaning of paragraph 2 of this Article shall be made by the Council.

ARTICLE XXXVI
ARBITRATION
1. Any dispute between a State Party and CDEMA arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement, which is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be referred for final decision to an arbitral tribunal of three arbitrators at the instance of either party.

2. Each party shall be entitled to appoint one arbitrator within fifteen days following the request of either party and the two arbitrators shall within fifteen days following the date of their appointments appoint a third arbitrator who shall be the Chairperson of the arbitral tribunal.

3. Where any party fails to appoint an arbitrator under paragraph 2 the other party may request the Secretary-General of the Caribbean Community to appoint an arbitrator within ten days.

4. Where the two arbitrators appointed under paragraph 2 fail to appoint a third arbitrator either party may request the Secretary General of the Caribbean Community to appoint an arbitrator within ten days.
5. The arbitral tribunal shall establish its own rules of procedure.

ARTICLE XXXVII

SIGNATURE AND RATIFICATION

The Agreement shall be open for signature by the States listed in the Annex to this Agreement and shall be subject to ratification in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.

(g) seeking from the Comptroller of Inland Revenue [Commission of Land Tax] information as to the identity of the occupier;

(h) searching any directory of addresses published in [   ] or maintained in electronic form by the Government of [   ] or advertised as a facility for [   ] for information as to the identity of the occupier.

(2) The hazard inspector may discontinue the searches in sub-regulation (1) where the search has been diligently pursued for a period of five weeks after the completion of the hazard inspector’s inspection under section 32 of the Act.

(3) The hazard inspector may be authorized by the Director to discontinue any of the searches in sub-regulation (1) where the Director considers that the cost of continuing the search would exceed the limit of reasonable expenditure within the budget available to the Director.

NOTICE OF REPORT AVAILABILITY BY ADVERTISEMENT
4. Where a hazard inspector remains in reasonable doubt as to the identity of the occupier of premises after compliance with regulation 3, the notice of the availability of the report under section of the Act may be given by publication in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper which is published in [ ] at intervals not exceeding one week.

Part II
SHELTERS

OVERCROWDING OF SHELTERS
5. A person seeking admission to a shelter may be refused admission –
(a) where the number of persons already admitted to the shelter is equal to the maximum number of persons for which the shelter is approved under section 29 of the Act;
(b) where, in the opinion of the shelter manager or, in the absence of the shelter manager, a shelter officer in temporary charge of the shelter, the shelter is already being used by such a number of persons that the admission of more persons to the shelter may result in undesirable overcrowding;
(c) the shelter is secured to provide shelter during an active disaster event and opening the shelter could cause injury or death to the occupants of the shelter or shelter management personnel.

PETS AND ANIMALS
6. (1) A person shall not bring any pet or other animal into the shelter except with the prior approval of a shelter officer or shelter manager.
(2) The shelter manager may require a person who has brought a pet or other animal into the shelter to remove the same from the shelter notwithstanding that the pet or other animal was brought into the shelter with the approval of the shelter manager or a shelter officer.

(3) A pet may be referred to [ ] for sheltering arrangements if requested prior to imminent threat or an active disaster event.

WEAPONS AND HAZARDOUS MATERIALS
7. (1) A person shall not bring any weapon or hazardous material into the shelter except with the prior approval of a shelter officer or shelter manager.
(2) The shelter manager may require a person who has brought a weapon or hazardous material into the shelter to remove the same from the shelter notwithstanding that the weapon or hazardous material was brought into the shelter with the approval of the shelter manager or a shelter officer.
(3) Where a person admitted or seeking admission to the shelter desires, for the purpose of treatment of an illness or other physical condition of that person or of another person for whom the person admitted or seeking admission is responsible, to bring into the shelter a syringe or other instrument capable of being used as a weapon or a prescribed drug which may have hazardous characteristics, the person may bring the instrument or drug into the shelter, but must comply with any requirement of a shelter manager or shelter officer –
(a) that the instrument or drug be placed by that person in the custody of the shelter manager or shelter officer when that person is not using that instrument or drug for such treatment; or
(b) where another person with medical, nursing or other similar qualifications is available, that the instrument or drug should be placed by the person admitted or seeking admission in the custody of the shelter manager or shelter officer or such qualified person, and that the treatment of the illness or other condition should be administered only by that qualified person.

LIMITS ON THE QUANTITY OF ACCOMPANYING LUGGAGE

8. (1) A person shall not bring luggage or other property into the shelter exceeding fifty pounds per person in weight or exceeding one suitcase, basket or box per person except with the prior approval of a shelter officer or the shelter manager.

(2) Where a person seeking shelter is carrying luggage in excess of the limit under sub-regulation (1), the person has the right to choose, within the limits imposed under these Regulations, which items of luggage or other property to leave behind on taking shelter.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR PROPERTY DAMAGE

9. (1) The shelter manager or shelter officer is not liable for accidental or negligent loss or damage to luggage or other property brought into the shelter by a person or on behalf of a person seeking shelter.

(2) The shelter manager shall affix to the shelter in a place where it can be seen by persons entering the shelter premises a notice containing the provisions of sub-regulation (1) and shall take such other steps as may be necessary to ensure that persons entering the shelter are aware of the provisions of sub-regulation (1) by providing an acknowledgement box on the shelter registration form and assuring all registrants are briefed and check the box before being allowed shelter.

(3) Nothing in these Regulations creates any liability on the Government of [ ], any shelter manager or officer or owner or occupier of a shelter which would not exist at common law.

SEARCH OF LUGGAGE AND PROPERTY

10. (1) Any person seeking admission to the shelter shall submit, as a condition for the grant of admission, to any requirement of the shelter manager or a shelter officer that any luggage or other property to be brought into the shelter is subject to search.

(2) Where the person seeking admission refuses to submit to a search under regulation 5, the shelter manager or a shelter officer may exclude the person from entry to the shelter.

SPACE ALLOCATION

11. (1) A person using a shelter shall observe the allocations of space within the shelter made by the shelter manager or by a shelter officer with the agreement of the shelter manager.

(2) A fee is not chargeable to persons seeking shelter in a shelter merely for the use of physical space.

REGULATION OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENT OR NOISY EQUIPMENT

12. A person shall not use any musical equipment or other noisy equipment during the period from eight o’clock in the evening to seven o’clock in the morning except with the prior approval of a shelter officer or the shelter manager.
